March is Colorectal Cancer Awareness Month. The Harold Leeper Regional Cancer Center invites you to an informative program focusing on colorectal cancer led by local expert Dr. John Zhang, program director of Waterbury Hospital's National Accreditation for Rectal Cancer.

Topics to be discussed include:

- How to reduce your risk of colorectal cancer
- Epidemiology and Genetics
- Various screening options, treatments, surgery and the latest technology advancements

Additionally, our Waterbury Area Ostomy Group partners will be available for questions.

Please register by March 27 by either:
